

Year 8 – Geography Homework Menu– Exploring Middle East Unit

Try to challenge yourself by doing different levels.  = most challenging. First piece to be handed in by 23/05/22, second piece by 06/06/22, third piece by 20/06/22, Fourth piece by 04/07/22, fifth piece by 18/07/22,

There is huge contrast in the level of development both across the region and also within some countries. For example, in Iraq, there are some exceptionally wealthy people, however lots of poverty. Draw a cartoon to explain this problem.

Design a page to introduce the topic Exploring the Middle East. Either collect pictures from magazines/internet, or draw your own images.

Research a place of your choice in the Middle East. Find out where it is and places of interest.

Write a poem to describe the Middle East.

What do you think the Middle East will be like in 2050? Write your predictions. You can decide on how you would like to present this information.

Create a poster/leaflet to advertise a country in the Middle East. Try to challenge yourself with a country that doesn't typically attract tourists.

Create a WORDLE for the Middle East. It must include at least 18 words and be nicely presented.

Make a board game that teaches people about the Middle East. Design and make the board and the game cards. Write the instructions as to how to play your game. Remember your game must be informative and teach others about the Middle East.

★
CHALLENGE YOURSELF

★
Aim High

Write a blog to show what it is like to live in contrasting places in the Middle East. You need to choose specific places, such as Dubai and the Empty Quarter.

Use your creative and artistic skills to design a superhero to represent the Middle East.

Include a picture of your design and label the features of your superhero.

Imagine you are a writer for a well-known newspaper. You have just visited an area of conflict within the Middle East.

Write a short article explaining why there is/was conflict, who is involved and some key events that have happened.

★
Be Creative
★